World Book Day – Thursday 6th March 2025.

Dear parents/carers,

World Book Day takes place on Thursday 6th March and we hope you'll join us to celebrate. We are celebrating World Book Day this year in the setting because we support the charity's mission to change lives through a love of books and reading.

Dressing up or bringing books into the setting is a big part of World Book Day celebrations, and is something that children and families particularly enjoy. We are inviting children to dress up this World Book Day as it's an exciting way for children to get book recommendations from each other.

We are aware that the cost of living crisis might make this difficult for some families, so we have organised the events to make sure that our World Book Day is fun and inclusive for all. Therefore, we ask that you wear your favourite set of pyjamas or onesie to school for the day. You can bring slippers to change into, if you wish, and also your favourite snuggly teddy or blanket too. If you do want to come as your favourite book character, you are more than welcome to.

We'd love to include you in our celebrations by coming along to our bedtime reading session at 3pm on the day. The children will be in their 'teams' so siblings will be placed together.

As part of the World Book Day activities, we would love it if you could send your child's chosen book in with them on the day so we can read it to them and their friends.

All pupils will be given a free £1 book token which can be taken to your nearest bookseller and swap it for a World Book Day £1 book OR alternatively you can use it to get £1 off ANY book or audiobook costing £2.99 or more. You can find your nearest bookseller at worldbookday.com/participating-retailers.

We will be taking part in many activities during the days, all reading related and we will be encouraging the children to be immersed in lots of different books, sharing these with their peers and parents. We're very much looking forward to celebrating World Book Day, which could not happen without the support of parents and carers – thank you.

Kind regards,

Mrs C. Bould,
English Lead.
